

Volunteer Examiner Coordinator Statement of Purpose

The purpose of the ARRLVEC is to provide amateur radio licensing examinations for prospective new hams and upgrade exam opportunities for those already licensed.

Objectives:

The ARRL VEC will provide a sufficient number of examination opportunities to meet the above purpose, on a schedule that is convenient to the applicants.

The ARRL VEC will provide the examination candidate with tests that meet all applicable requirements of current Federal Communications Commission rules and regulations and are administered by those requirements and generally accepted educational testing principles and practices.

The ARRL VEC will provide a service level of the highest order to our customers, the Volunteer Examiners. (Annual 1989; Minute 29)
